WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The annual meeting of the Woman's Presbyterian Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Box Butte will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Alliance, March 7 and 8. Three services will be held. The first will commence with a luncheon served at the church at 1 p. m., on Thursday. The evening service will begin at 7:30. The meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary Society will close with a service which will begin at 9:30 Friday morning, although an address will be given in the church at 7:30 Friday evening by Mrs. J. P. Engstrom, field secretary of the board of the northwest. The program, which will be published in the next issue of The Herald, will be a very interesting one to persons interested in the missionary work of the church. The principal address of the convention will be delivered at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Engstrom.

A BIG RANCH

Hall & Graham are showing their confidence in the ranch proposition in this country by increasing the size of the Hampton ranch, which they purchased in the fall, and by increasing the number of cattle with which their ranch is stocked. They now have one of the largest ranches in western Nebraska and with their experience in the handling of live stock and their knowledge of ranch conditions will, without doubt, make a great success of their enterprise.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Unknown Heirs and Devises of John C. Clayton, deceased, will take notice that on the 24th day of January, 1912, Theodore Colvin, Plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the district court of Box Butte county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to quiet title in the plaintiff to the southeast one-fourth (SE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section 27, in Township 27, north of Range 50, West, in Box Butte county, Nebraska, as against the defendants and all persons claiming through or under them and to exclude the defendants and each of them from all right, title and interest therein. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 1st day of April, 1912. Dated February 21, 1912. THEODORE COLVIN, Plaintiff.

The stockholders of the Co-Operative store have decided to close up the business. It seems that while they have had a large trade, their goods have been sold at too close a margin and the profit would not pay running expenses.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION

County Superintendent's Notice of Special and Reading Circle Examinations

STATE TEACHERS' EXAMS

Special Examinations
In order to accommodate the normal training students who wish to complete their examinations before commencement time, and enable teachers to take examinations in subjects that usually come on Friday, without closing school, a special examination will be given on Saturday, April 20. The entire examination will be given on the one day. The Friday and Saturday forenoon examinations will be given on Saturday forenoon; the Friday afternoon and Saturday afternoon subjects will be given Saturday afternoon.

Reading Circle Examinations
On Saturday, May 18, the reading circle examinations for the year 1911-1912 in Colgrove and Hoyt will be given. The examination on Colgrove's The Teacher and the School will be given in the forenoon; Hoyt's History of Modern Education will come in the afternoon.

The examination on Winship's Great American Educators, upon which credit in General History will be allowed, will be given on Friday forenoon, May 17.

Please Note: In addition to the theory examination based on Colgrove there will be the regular examination in theory on Friday afternoon, May 17. Likewise, in addition to the examination on Winship's Great American Educators, there will be a regular examination in General History on Friday forenoon, May 17.

State Teachers' Examinations
Regular State Teachers' Examinations, March 15-16, 1912.

DELLA M. REED,
County Superintendent.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE

High School Teams Meet in Forensic Contest, Thursday Evening, Feb. 29th

SIDNEY AGAINST ALLIANCE

The High School debating squad will meet the trio from Sidney at the Phelan Opera House, on Thursday evening, February 29th, at 8 o'clock. This is one of the first of the series of debates for the championship of the Northwest district. Debates will occur between the following schools of this district: Scottsbluff vs. Minatare; Crawford vs. Chadron; Gordon vs. Rushville; and Sidney vs. Alliance. The winners of each pair of schools debate against the winners of another pair and the two victorious teams meet for the final debate for the championship.

The question for discussion is: "Resolved, That the movement of organized labor for the closed shop should receive the support of public opinion." Michael Nolan, Ray Bigelow and Dorothy Smith will represent Alliance and uphold the affirmative. The program for the evening will be as follows:

Piano Duet, Hattie Renswald and Eunice Eldred.
Violin Solo, Paul Thomas.
DEBATE.
Vocal Solo, Miss Anna Nerud.
Instrumental Solo, Mrs. Wayne Zediker.
Decision of Judges.

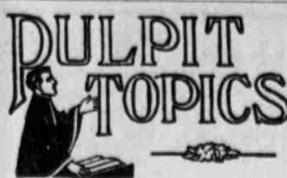

Inasmuch as there will be some expense attached to the debate, an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. Seats may be reserved at Holsten's on the day of the debate. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Howard of Deadwood came to the city on business Saturday, returning home this morning.

Mrs. Julia Hale, accompanied by Miss Perri and Virgil, spent a couple of days visiting with friends at Angola and Bridgeport the first of the week.

Word received from Mrs. O. S. Baker, who is confined in an Omaha hospital, is to the effect that she is resting nicely, there being no discouraging report so far.

The Epworth League railroad excursion will leave the Tash home at 8 p. m., on Friday, March 1. There will probably be upwards of 200 tickets sold. Each should secure before starting, not only the regular ticket but also an accident ticket, which will exempt the holder from fines during the journey. The price of a through ticket is only 15 cents, and accident tickets 10 cents. Plenty of refreshments and the best time of your life. Procure your tickets early and avoid the rush.
